Dates Set for Election And Town Meeting

The board of selectmen Monday evening opened the warrant for the annual town election and the annual town meeting.

The election has been set for March 7 while the first session of the town meeting is scheduled for March 21. The town meeting will be held later than in the past at the request of the finance com-mittee to allow the committee more time to consider the budget and warrant articles. It will also make it possible for the finance committee to publish its report prior to the town meeting. Thus, town meeting members, will be given more time to study the warrant and the finance board's recommendations.

The warrant will be closed Monday, Jan. 24. All articles bearing the signatures of 10 or more registered voters will be included in the warrant provided they are filed with the selectmen on or before Jan. 24.

IS A LARGER TOWN HALL NEEDED?

The town meeting members' vote, last week, refusing an additional appropriation for the proposed addition to the Robbins Town Hall may prove a wise move. It may give all concerned an opportunity to reconder the wisdom of spending a large sum of money to enlarge the town hall at a time when higher salaries, the MTA deficit and school needs point to a certain increase in the tax rate.

We believe steps should be taken to remove the offices of the park Keenan Bills commissioners and tree warden from the basement. Contrary to popular belief, employees of these department must work in this damp asement office all day, and it is not used only for board meetings once week. A substantial taxpayer has suggested that the hearing room be used for offices, temporarily at least. Another suggestion is that the ark deparment and tree warden's office be moved temporarily to the large private office formerly set aside for the town clerk.

These are temporary measures that could be put into effect at no at to the town while providing better working conditions for two partments that are most seriously affected.

Looking into the not too distant future, it appears inevitable that Junior High School Center will be abandoned for school purposes. Its enrollment a year ago was 290; last September it dropped to 243. It appears likely that pupils now attending this school eventually will be assigned to either Junior High East or Junior High West. At the East, last September's enrollment was 20 less than the previous year and facilities are available to take care of more children. On the other hand, plans have already been approved for a new combination masium and auditorium at Junior High West and when this is built, oom space for 250 more students will be made available, accord-to the school superintendent. The Junior High Center building, if abandoned for school purposes, on offers unlimited possibilities for additional office space. It might ide permanent quarters for such departments as the park commisers, tree warden and town engineer, thus making available more of the existing office space in the town hall to other departments that are now occupying cramped quarters. Or, the Junior High Centre building might become a recreational and educational center, with office space for the school and park departits and the rest of the space devoted to youth activities. Saturday classes are already being conducted there.

Certainly, we should move slowly before enlarging the town hall. thile such improvements as a new kitchen for banquets might be added at the town hall, we question whether a costly two-story additien for office space is necessary when the Junior High Center building. just a stone's throw away, is likely to become available for this purpose.

FAIR TO ALL WORKERS

In what is interpreted as a far-reaching decision, the Supreme Court this week, in two opinions, upheld the laws of three states barring the closed shop, which restricts employment to members of unions, as well as the rights of all states to make Justice Hugo L. Black, who is considered one of the court's trongest liberals, wrote the findings, one dealing with laws of North Carolina and Nebraska, and the other affecting Arizona legislation. All nine jurists approved the North Carolina statute. The decision makes it clear that the individual states may resolve the question of closed shops for themselves. Justice Black said, in parts

"There cannot be wrung from a constitutional right of workers assemble to discuss improvement of their own working standards, a further constitutional right to drive from remunerative employment, all other persons who will not or cannot, participate in union

He agreed it "may be true" that the closed shop barriers weaken the bargaining power of unions and correspondingly strengthen the power of employers.

"But," he explained, "there are other matters to be considered. The state laws also make it impossible for an employer to make contracts with company unions which obligate the employer to refuse jobs to union members.

"Just as we have held that the due process clause (of the Constitution) erects no obstacle to block legislative protection of union members, we now hold that legislative protection can be afforded union workers."

The conclusion reached by the nation's highest court appears to fair to all classes of workers - the organized as well as the non-union wage earners.

Equipment for Use at Spy Pond

Will the drowning Indian princess's curse sworn upon Spy Pond, stating that one life a year be taken, live again this year? Not if the Sea Scouts can prevent it!

The Sea Scouts of Ship 37, S.S.S. Canberra have undertaken steps to alleviate the danger of ice skating on the pond this season. They have received permission from various residents around the pond to place some sort of life saving equipment on their property to be used in emergency. The Sea Scouts have already located six strategic points where stations will be erected and have succeeded in having one station, at the base of Linwood st., equipped and ready for use, but that isn't enough.

They are appealing to the city zens of Arlington for help to complete this worthy task to save a life. They need ladders (in any repairable shape), poles and boards at least 10 feet long, posts to place the equipment on, rope of any type and any other material that could be used in emergency. The Sea Scouts will undertake pair any material received, erect the equipment and see to it that it is kept in good working condition,

Due to legal difficulties, the Park Commissioners, who are very willing to co-operate in every way, are unable to place public equipment on private property. If you have any material that you would wish to donate to this undertaking, please contact either Skipper Richard Brown, AR-5-2414-M or 1st Mate Allan Hughes, AR-5-7383-W.

The United States government indicated this week it had little doubt that the Soviet government had again broken an international agreement when it asked the Russians, in a blunt note, how many German prisoners of war still are held in the Soviet Union in violation of a four-power pact requiring that all prisoners be repa-triated by Dec. 31, 1948... The State Dept. said the U.S. had repatriated all of its German prioners by June 30, 1947, 18 months ahead of the deadline. Britain and France advised our government that they, too, had released all prisoners long before the deadline

To Join Local

Arlingtonians were invited this week to join the Arlington Citizens'

Committee which annually en-dorses candidates for town offices in a statement issued by John J.

"Many of the informed voters of Arlington already know that the Arlington Citizens Committee is a non-partisan organization of registered voters whose primary in-terest is that of endorsing the most capable available candidates for public office in Arlington and to support them in their efforts to Committee is open to any and all voters and it will be effective only insofar as its membership is rep-

commendations of the Committee are the direct result of the vote of its members in democratic open meeting after careful considera-tions of the qualifications of the

"Doubtless every voter has, at some time in the past, been confronted by a ballot offering a choice between only mediocre candidates and has, so to speak, had to select the lesser of two or three zens Committee to do away with Outstandingly capable candidates, particularly for part-time positions such as Selectman, School Committee, Board of Public Works, etc.,

hesitate to offer their services because they do not have the time nor funds to undertake unassisted an independent campaign for office. The Citizens Committee offers their assistance to such candidates in the belief that the more efficient and economical administration of will repay many times the ex-penditures and effort put forth by the membership of the Committee.

"It is obvious that the important work of endorsing candidates and assisting them with their cam-paigns cannot possibly be effectively done by a relatively few. The work of the Citizens Committee is only successful when many particof the Committee before the electorate at large requires a modest-amount of funds which are raised by an assessment of one dollar annual dues per member and by voluntary contributions by public spirited citizens.

"Possibly due to the fact that 1949 is a 'big' year in Town elections, many new members have signed up. This is indeed encourag-ing since it is an indication that relatively more of the voters are willing to make a small contribution of time and money in an ef-fort to guarantee that Arlington shall have proper and competent officials to conduct Town business.

"Any voter desiring information or wishing to become a member of the Citizens Committee should com tact Membership Chairman, John J. O'Neil, 41 Kenilworth road. Phone AR. 5-6394-W or any of the other officers or directors of the committee."

"Naturally to put the conclusions

the Town affairs by such officials

Three young men were taken to the Symmes Hospital last Sunday night after the car in which they Children of the Religious School under the leadership of Martin Tagerman, presented their program in celebration of the holiday island at Massachusetts ave., and of Chanukah.

A consecration ceremony was presented by the beginner's class. The following children took part: Nutt, 22. of 49 Ridge road, Lexington, driver of the auto; George Ellard, 24, of 6 Park terrace, and James Griffin, 23, of 37 Phillips st., were taken to the hospital in the police ambulance.

presented a production to comnemorate the holiday of Chanudepicting famous events in Jewish history up to the present day. One of the features was the lighting of the Chanukah candles. The cast consisted of Arthur Goldberg, Paul Bagelman, Gail Bagelman, Annabel Abrams, Verna Shaer, Norman Garber, Martin Stein, Phillip Marcus, Robert Rosendorn, Herbert Yood, Norman Shaer, Edward Goldberg and Rey-nold Spector. Eileen Cohen accompanied the group on the piano.

$851.39 had been spent in Arlington during the last six months of 1948. The balance on hand in the Mable E. Thompson fund is $10,-653.41.

The school nutritionist, Mrs. Doris Pierce reported 85 students have been consulted in the high and Junior high schools. Five nutrition classes have been held for the Girl Scouts. Chefs classes are conducted for the boys and a summer nutrition class was held for the students at St. Anne school. Individual family cases have been handled for the Visiting Nursing Association, the Arlington Social Service League, Robbins House and some of the school

There as 60 workers for production in the four Red Cross sewing groups. Since last May, 3367 sewn articles, of 10 kinds, have been sent to Boston, the largest item being 2353 diapers. Seventy knitted articles and 23,935 surgical dressings were made.

The motor corps has accomplished 605 errands and transported 242 patients. This takes in the Massachusetts General Hospital. Children's Hospital, Mt. Auburn Hospital and the School for Crip-pled Children, Boston. Entertainers have been given transportation to the Veterans Hospitals. Every Thursday afternoon Mrs. L. C. Pespisa takes five ladies from Arlington and two from Lexington, to the Bedford Hospital, to teach arts and skills to the patients for the Red Cross unit. On Fridays the station wagon is used to carry production for Woburn and Arlington.
On Saturdays a trip is made to the tubercular sanitarium in North Reading. The drivers have given over 608 hours and the mileage is made in private cars.

The motor corps is on call at all times for blood for the Symmes Hospital; at least two or three calls are made every week for this greatly needed service.

The regular drivers include Mrs. Edward Gliddon, chairman; Mrs. E. S. MacEwen, Mrs. Harold E. LaFayette, Mrs. Donald Belcher, Mrs. John Campbell, Mrs. Harry Brown, Mrs. G. W. Forbush, Mrs.

J. P. Bower, Mrs. Esta Hokans, and Mrs. L. C. Pespisa.

Bloodmobile. Stressed

Mr.s Arthur Sampson's report on the visit of the bloodmobile to Arlington was extensive and interrest-ing. She feels that the community must be educated in the needs of the blood bank and inspired to contribute on the next visit April 4 and 5, 1949. It is insurance for ones family. One donor needed blood for a relative and was given three pints for the one given and two replacements were secured, making five pints in all.

Rev. Halsey I. Andrews is the chairman for disaster and Thomas H. Callahan, first aid chairman.

Mrs. Raymond S. Morrill, chairman of Junior Red Cross, stated that 200 gift boxes had been filled and sent into Boston for children overseas. Forty-three registered at the tea and lecture of the district teachers, sponsors of the Jun-ior Red Cross, held in the High School. $235 has been contributed by the school so far, in the enroll-ment drive for Red Cross.

Philip Bassett, field representa-tive from Boston, said there are three musts of Red Cross, bloodmohome service and disaster relief. Arlington has about 25 home service cases a month, which are handled from Boston. There are four red cross trailors adequately equipped to care for emergency.
The one stationed in Woburn can be called for if Arlington has need of it, for any small disaster and Boston always stands ready to help. Mr. Bassett is in charge of the new Red Cross service, that of helping the displaced persons coming to Boston's Commonwealth Pier. There is a need for canteen Mr. Bassett stated that Arling-ton had a high level of accomplish-

May Ask Town to Share Expense of Christmas Lighting in Future

The possibility of more extensive Christmas lighting in the business districts. It was suggest-town's shopping districts, to include East Arlington and Arling-ton Heights, in the future, with the Town government sharing the ton and Arlington Heights since cost, was discussed at a meeting of the directors of the Arlington Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday evening.

Arthur J. Mansfield presided and took occasion to congratulate Arlington merchants who cooperated in making the recent Christmas lighting of Arlington Center possible. The directors expressed their appreciation of the cooperation shown by the selectmen and other department heads in attractively lighting the town hall, Robbins Library and fire stations, as well as the community Christmas tree Arlington Center during the holiday season. The president suggested that the serting an article in the town Town might consider defraying the cost of installing a string of lights tion if deemed advisable, along Massachusetts ave., on the Benjamin F.
